After we had glued those flanks on and clamped it together, we had some time to do the 'ears' on the head of my Ukulele. We cut the ears to the thickness of the head, so that we could cut the head at a later session.

---

Communication: Use active listening techniques to understand others.
Social: Respect different opinions and points of views from others.
Thinking: Consider consequences of events.
- Apply skills and knowledge in unfamiliar situations.